WARREN G. CANIPE III
a.k.a. "Trey"

DOCKET NO.

BILL OF INDICTMENT

Violations:

18 U.S.C. § 871(a)

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

COUNT ONE

On or about November 8, 2004, in Catawba County and elsewhere within the Western District of North Carolina, the defendant, did knowingly and willfully make a true threat to take the life of or to inflict bodily harm upon the President of the United States, George W. Bush, by stating in an email that:

WARREN G. CANIPE III

dude, i was thinking this weekend that 2 things could be done to bring revolution in this country (cause this is no better time in history for a revolution):

1. we could organize a nation wide campaign to raise $$ for the assination of Bush... I'm not shitting -- i would be behind this... i would email people or what ever it took to raise money to pay for the assination --- or to offer a "reward" for the assination of Bush..

2. we could call for a civil war... if people started fighting conservative, Zionist bastards in the streets like they do in the middle east --- you know, car bombs on repubs, etc, etc

i really think my place in history is meant to be much more than just a dude that bills people for freight shipments... I tried to make it with music (b/c i had something to say), but maybe my place could be in politics or religion.. maybe i could go down in history as starting a revolution just like when the south succeeded from the union... You know, the south did not actual "attack" the north -- they simply withdrew from the union... maybe the 49% liberal minded people of this country could cause an uprising!?

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 871(a).
